The mystery should give parents clues that require them to find envelopes containing additional clues that have been planted around the building. You may want to alter the location of the clues for each parent group so that the traveling groups are spread out. Mystery fiction is a genre where a detective can be a professional or an average person looking for answers, and solves crimes. Some characters have nothing to gain from solving their crimes, where some find treasures of all sorts. In this lesson, we'll define the mystery genre of detective writing and examine some of the characteristics and elements that make this genre unique, such as the use of dramatic tension. 2015-05-30 Download Teaching The Mystery Genre Exploring the Mystery Genre Unit Plan.
